CONGRATULATIONS

The Student Body has finished another major project within the year 1951. This noteworthy annual commemorates your great year of 1951 with all its outstanding achievements. Please allow me to congratulate you.

Seniors of 1951 may this your last year always be fresh in your minds. May those associations you have made be always near to you. Time may dim other memories, but your school years being among your happiest should receive a special place in your memory.

One factor to life's success exhibited by you in the past is your never ending determination to achieve a goal that often has seemed impossible to attain. Retain this spirit and your life will be successful.

My heartiest congratulations. I wish for each and every one of your life's

George H. Anderson

Superintendent

ANNUAL STAFF

This year's annual staff consisted of only six members. This number was decided upon so that each person was assigned a specific task and was held to it. Besides the actual writing of the annual these members sold the ads, handled the annual sales and did all the things necessary to a successful publication of the Panther.

The above flash picture was taken in the library at one of the year book meetings one night this spring. Their informal attire shows that they were there for work [they learned the meaning of work this year].

Mr. Pommer annual advisor, took all the pictures of the classes and activities and with the help of the Editor developed, printed, and enlarged them in our new dark room. Snap shots and enlargements were made and sold to the indiviiduals to help defray the cost of the equipment which should pay for itself in about three years.

HISTORY

At exactly 9:00 o'clock, September 2, 1947, the first curtain rose and the play entitled "The Class of '51" began. Sixteen "green" frosh came on the stage. These frosh were initiated into the first act by the juniors on Oct. 3. We sold cakes and cookies at the annual Fall Barbe-Q. The class party was held in the high school gym.

The people who had leading roles were:

President ..... Sadao Kinoshita
Vice Pres. ..... Myrna Covert
Secretary ..... Karlene Knapp
Treasurer ..... Donna Hose
Social Chairman ..... Leona Mann
Board of Control ..... Corrine Borgens
Director ..... Mr. McFarland

A little while later, the curtain again rose and we saw fifteen sophomores on stage. Immediately everything started buzzing with activity. Two new actors, Shirley Gray and Leland Henrichs, took their places behind the footlights. The characters of this most rememberable play again undertook the project of selling homemade cakes and cookies at the annual Fall Festival and Barbe-Q. The class picnic was held at Williams Lake, on May 27.

The leading roles in this act were played by:

President ..... Myrna Covert
Vice Pres. ..... Frances Zundel
Secretary ..... Shirley Gray
Treasurer ..... Corrine Borgens
Board of Control ..... Sadao Kinoshita
Social Chairman ..... Karlene Knapp
Sergeant at Arms ..... Dixon White
Director ..... Miss Divelbiss

The curtain fell with hearty applause.

After a short pause, act three was ready to begin. As the curtain rose we saw the cast was the same with only the leading roles changed to present the following:

President ..... Carroll McCormick
Vice Pres. ..... Wade Vick
Secretary ..... Frances Zundel
Treasurer ..... Sadao Kinoshita
Social Chairman ..... Karlene Knapp
Sergeant at Arms ..... Leland Hendrichs

HISTORY [Continued]

The first thing that happened was the initiation of eleven frosh on Oct. 14. In this act there was a repetition of previous acts as the booth was set up and again we sold cakes and cookies. On Nov. 18 the class play, "The Skeleton Walks", was presented. We chose our class rings from the Master Engravers huge stock. "Cinderella" was the theme for our prom held May 12. Our flower girl, Doris Barbre and flower boy, Jimmy Hoffman added to the success of this venture. Leah McCune left the stage during act three, but she was quickly replaced by Glenn Morrison. We held our class picnic at Williams Lake and as the curtain fell, everyone was having a wonderful time.

Soon the fourth and final act started in "The Class of '51". The leading characters were changed to:

President	Myrna Covert
Vice Pres.	Donald Schuh
Secretary	Corrine Borgens
Treasurer	Sadao Kinoshita
Board of Control	Leland Hendricks
Social Chairman	Frances Zundel
Director	Mr. Pommer

The play, "Bolts and Nuts", was presented April 27. Our senior sneak was May 11, and we went up Saint Joe River. This is one event we'll never forget. Our class picnic was held at Williams Lake. This is the chosen spot for our class memories. The class flower is dyed orchid carnation, class motto is "Weak men wait for opportunities; strong men make them"; and the class colors are orchid and silver. Baccalaureate services were held, Sunday, May 20. Commencement exercises were by candlelight on May 25, the graduates couldn't stay for the curtain calls.

They had to get prepared for their future life, but you can rest assured that as we look back at these four acts, we'll remember them as our most cherished and rememberable by each of our class.

WILL

The time has now come for the senior class of nineteen hundred and fifty-one to bequeath their prosperity and behavior to the students and faculty of Harrington High School.

Myrna Covert wills her place as president of the senior class to some lucky [or maybe unlucky] person in the class of "52". As editor of the annual she wills this place of honor to Darlene Miller in hopes that she will have as much fun being editor as Myrna did. Myrnie wills her ability to get along with all the teachers and still have lots of fun doing it to Gloria; have fun kid! To the rest of the students of H. H. S. she leaves her mischievious spirit in hopes that it will help keep things lively when she's not around, but we fear this is one thing that Myrnie will have a hard time giving away.

Glen Morrison wills to Jim Larsh, his ability to stay out of trouble; take it easy Jim! To Bengie, Glenn's ability to take seven subjects. To Darlene and Gregory his forsight and perserverence in bookkeeping; and to Mr. Pommer, Glenn's fond memories of Physics Class. Also to Tommy Talkington absolutely nothing; he just wanted to give him some publicity.

Shirley Gray leaves her place in the office first period to anyone who gets it, in hopes that they get their office work satisfactorily done. She bequeaths her un-naturally curly hair to Elois H. To Peggy C. her seat in the Senior row, so Peggy won't have to walk clear across the room to stand by the radiator. Oh, yes, Shirley wishes to leave her feed bag size purse, a sure sign of a senior girl, to Gloria Werner.

Wade Vick wills his curly hair to Norman Severson, so Norman will be able to play football and his ability to get the car to Bobbie Birge, so Bobbie will have more dates with Kay. Wade wishes to give his ability to get to school on time to Tom. Don't get excited Tom!

Karlene Knapp wishes to leave her ability to get along with Mr. Pommer to Joyce Kindred. Why Joyce? Karlene wills to Gloria, whom she thinks is capable, her student body social chairman office and her tennis position to Harriet Covert. Her trombone to anyone that wants to take band. And to Patty Kerr, Karlene's good studying habits.

Carroll McCormick said that he didn't have much to will but he would like to give Bob Jannot his long tresses. And his hairless chin he wishes to leave with Nils. Don't you believe it Nils. Carroll's last but not least ability, he wishes to leave to Janet An MacDonald and that is his beautiful baritone voice. Take good care of it, Janet An.

Frances Zundel wills her alto horn to the next alto player, she hopes that he will know how to play on the after beats. Frances's giggles go to Janet McCormick. Do you think she's capable to hold on to them? To Janet MacDonald her spot on the tennis squad and to Darlene Miller, Frances bequeaths her typing grades. She leaves her ability to get into arguments and quarrels to Joy Wilson. Please don't make use of it. Last, but by no means least she wills her baton and whistle to the next H. H. S. majorette. May she enjoy it as much as Frances did.

Roger Scott took a long time until he decided to give anything away, but to Darrel Varnier he wills his ability to play basketball. Roger wished to give Ray Whiteside his brains [What brains?] and Greg Knapp his laugh and talk. To Bob Birge, Roger's ability to get along with the coach and Gary K. his height, with hope Gary will grow and make use of it. Oh, also, Roger wishes to leave some junior his desk and to whom ever it falls make good use of it, Roger never did.

Donna Hose felt that she should will everything to Duane but she decided later to give her school mates some minor things. Her pretty hair she wishes to leave to Kathryn Knapp and Donna's ability at sewing to Kay Graham. Her tennis ability goes to the person who will make really good use of it. As for Donna's love life she wishes to keep it herself. Good Luck Donna!

Dixon White wishes to will his student body office as president to the person that the student body wishes to have for their next prexy. We hope that this person will do as well as Dixon did. Dixon also wishes to leave his physique to Larry Bailey so Larry can be on the first squad in football. Also Dixon wishes good luck to the next basketball manager in hopes that he can fill the job; it's a big one; job that is.

Leona Mann wills her typing papers to Bobby Birge and her biology papers to Elois Harrison. Her artistic ability to Joy Wilson and Home Ec. class to anyone who would like to have it. Leona leaves her clarinet to—, but she decided to keep it to entertain her patients. To the next Girl's League treasurer, she wills the ability to count money and keep the books straight.

Donald Schuh wishes Gary John to have his basketball ability and leaves his typing ability to Terry. Now you make good use of that typing, they say practice makes perfect. To Bob Jannot, Donnie wishes to leave his love seat, so Bob won't get lonesome or cold.

Corrine Borgens just had so many things that she wanted to get rid of she didn't know where to start, but wants Mildred to have her physics papers and Corrine also wants Mildred to have her artistic ability in hopes she will make better use of it than Corrine did. She doesn't know who would want the hot lunch inventory so gives it to just anybody. To Joyce Kindred she wills her sewing ability and patience. Corrine wishes to give her size 3½ shoes to her little sister Leota. To Donna Maurer goes Corrine's 22 inch waist, make good use of it Donna.

Leland Henrichs has finally dusted the grease off his coveralls and wishes Bob Jannot to have them, and auto shop class. Also to Bob, if he takes auto shop, the ability to start the beast. [And not the one you're thinking of either Bob!] That's one way to make credits. He would like Gary John to have his new tuba as he feels Gary has the wind. Some advise, get a crew cut before you start marching so the hair won't get in your eyes. To Jack Heimbigner, Leland wills his ability to get Mr. Anderson's car to go down town.

Sadao Kinoshita wills the paper to anyone who wants it! To Nils he leaves his ability to argue and get kicked out of classes. Terry Biggart gets his ability to blow up the chemistry lab. He wills his vim, humor, and conceit, to Jack Heimbigner. Since Jack already has the last one, he can also have the other two.

To Mr. Anderson, our Superintendent, we wish to leave the quiet halls, gum filled waste paper baskets, and orderly study halls. Don't forget us, Boss.

To Mr. Pommer, our Principal, we leave our mathematical minds and our old picture negatives.

To Mr. Lomax, we leave our old books and book receipts. We also leave our hopes that the boys in our class who were on your basketball squad will not be forgotten.

To Miss Glaeser, we leave our old typing time test papers and the Home Ec. Room cook books. We're sure she can use them, especially the cook books.

To Miss Hornberger, we leave our old play books, [also the nuts] and our perfect English classes. We also think that she might be able to use a few of those cock books soon.

To Mr. Howard, we leave our talents in music, so he can give them to those who need it in band.

We, the seniors will the juniors the ability to get along with each other and above all not to fight with the juniors to be.

To the Sophomores we leave our good study habits and cheerfulness.

To the frosh we leave our best wishes and hopes that you too some day might graduate.

We wish to the incoming frosh a very successful high school career.

To the faculty we leave this parting thought: "Remember Us"!

To each and everyone of our classmates; "So Long, It's Been Good To Know You"!

And now, on May twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and fifty-one we, the seniors of "51" with sound mind and clear vision, do solemnly swear that this is the way we bequeath our prosperity and abilities.

Signed,
THE SENIORS

PROPHECY

THE CLASS VISION

Taken from Commencement Manual—Edith Paintor

By
Shirley Gray, Donna Hose,
Wade Vick, Dixon White

They told me I must prophecy,
But I knew not what to do
For I was not born a prophet
Any more than one of you.
I had spent the day in study,
And in thinking, hard and deep,
So I now, all worn and weary,
Lay me down and fell asleep.
I had lain there but a moment
In that slumber, calm and sweet,
When I rose, refreshed and strengthened,
And stepped out upon the street;
But I very soon discovered
That I was in a strange place,
For I saw not one known figure,
Nor an old familiar face.
I was in a mammoth City,
By the side of which I knew
That New York, the nation's glory,
Would stand but a feeble show;
Great skyscrapers all about me;
Rocketships through all the air;
Wonders far beyond conception
Here and there and everywhere!
I could scarce believe my senses
When I saw the rocketship line
Bore the well-known name of Harrington,
While the same gleamed from every sign;
And my eyes were opened wider
Than they'd ever been before,
When I saw a slip of paper,
Dated 1974!
While I puzzled o'er this problem,
Staring 'round with open eyes,
Looking for some one to question
About this marvelous surprise,
I beheld near me a lady,
Coming on with footsteps slow,
And I thought I would accost her
And learn what I wished to know.
As she came to be still nearer,

PHOPHECY [Continued]

I thought I had seen that face
Somewhere else, yet I could not put it
In exactly its right place;
But at last she stood before me,
And all wonder vanished quite;
'Twas my old friend, Leona Mann,
And I met her with delight.
It was strange that I should know her,
For the change in her was great;
She was wearing a beautiful fur,
Which was purchased by her mate.
She seemed quite surprised to see me,
Said I had been long away,
And gave me an invitation
To remain with her that day.
Her kind offer I accepted,
And she hailed a flying car,
Which we boarded, skimming swiftly
Through the air, fast and far.
I watched the conductor closely
'Twas a lady, short and stout,
Fully able to assist the
Passengers as they stepped in or out.
As she took my fare she knew me,
And stood pointing out strange sights . . .
Myrna Covert thus had proven
Her belief in women's rights!
In the car a dude was sitting,
Toying with a poodle small,—
Why, 'twas Wade Vick! I scarcely
Would have known the man at all.
Soon we flitted past a corner
That looked like old times to me,
For it was the well-known corner
Where our High School used to be!
Now the place had changed to show
A factory, fifty stories high;
And I noticed a small fish-stand
There, as we were passing by.
And behind the greasy counter
Stood a man I knew at sight;
Yes for it was Dixon White,
Shouting, "Fish!" with all his might.
I looked out at him in wonder,
For whoever would have thought
That our old-time student body president
Could to such a task be brought.

PHOPHECY [Continued]

But the whole day brought surprises:
Sadao was acting on the stage;
Frances was an opera singer;
Glenn a preacher, quite the rage;
Carroll a professor; Donnie an author
Karlene an old maid, prim and neat;
While Corrine had grown to be very fat
Anti-Fat was all she'd eat.
Leland was a rich man
Owning stables by the score,
Able to bet more on the ponies
Than he ever had before.
Shirley was a school-teacher
With spectacles on her nose,
And when we entered the schoolroom,
Her pupils politely rose.
Bye and bye we reached the home where
Donna lived—her husband, too,
But he was a traveling salesman,
So I didn't find out who!
I was very tired and sleepy,
So I felt that it was best
To withdraw myself a little
For an hour or two of rest.
I slept long and very soundly,
And just imagine my surprise
When again, after my slumber,
I opened my drowsy eyes,
And found myself in the house
I had lived in long ago,
Ere I started out that morning
On that curious quest to go.
I sprang up and sought the window:
Yes, it was the same old town
That, in what seemed years ago,
I had wearily lain down;
But the dream had been so life-like,
That even yet I could not feel
That the vision I had witnessed
Could be otherwise than real.
So you see, dear friends and classmates,
That 'twas nothing but a dream
I've been telling, however natural
And real to you it must seem;
But in this old world of wonders,
Dreams have often-times come true,
So, who knows but this, my vision,
May be realized by you?

JUNIOR CLASS

The class of "52" had a most eventful and pleasant year under the capable direction of their officers.

We had a booth at the fall Barbe-Q, at which cookies, pies, donuts, and candy were sold.

Ocober 6, 1950, the "Frosh" entertained during the day by wearing junior designed initiation costumes and after school were taken to Davenport to parade on the streets. That night initiation into H. H. S. was completed, followed by refreshments and dancing.

We presented our class play "Let Me Out Of Here", directed by Mr. Howard, November 17, 1950, we held a food raffle in connection with the American Legion Turkey Shoot.

During the basketball season, popcorn and pop were sold at the home games.

Many of the class members were awarded letters for various sports.Four of our boys were on the first ten basketball team, which went to Tacoma to participate in the state class B tournament. Most of the junior class attended the state tournament to support the team.

With Mr. Howard's able advice and help we presented our Junior Prom May 4, 1951. The theme was "Stairway To The Stars". Del Hartman and his Gonzagans furnished the music. George Anderson, Diana Parr, Billy Talkington, and Jimmy Swenson were flower girls and boys. Anita Barbre and John Maurer served as punch girl and boy. The junior escorts were Joyce Kindred, Darlene Miller, Nils Knapp, and Jack Heimbigner.

With the climaxing of our class party our junior year was brought to a close. We will remember this year as being one of the best and most active years in H. H. S.

Members of the band had a very successful year of activities.

Band started the season by playing at the Lincoln County fair.

The band bought material and with the help of Miss Glaeser and the Home Ec. class made a banner in the form of an H with panthers on each side.

A spring concert was presented by the band with soloists— Carroll McCormick singing, My Task, and I Am The Captain of the Pinafore, Karlene Knapp playing, The Pals Polka, a trombone solo with the band.

The Pep Band played at the home basketball games and also played at a few games away from Harrington. The full band journeyed to Cheney for the district games and gave one half time show.

On April 21 the band went to the Bi-County music meet in Ritzville and rated an excellent, they also went to the band contest in Spokane April 28.

The Band gave a "Pop" concert of musical favorites May 1.

JUNIOR PLAY

After six weeks of fun filled rehersals the junior class under the direction of Mr. C. H. Howard presented "Let Me Out of Here" on Nov. 17.

Story of the Play

Bona Lynn and Eve Boyd work together as typists and share a little two-room apartment. Bona has a handsome brother that Eve would like to meet. Eve has a wealthy aunt who wants Eve to marry Gifford Morton, an eccentric poet and writer of children's stories. Eve wants to be independent and has led her aunt to believe that she is attending an exclusive girls school when she is really earning a salary.

But Aunt Angella and Gifford are coming to pay Eve a visit! Eve isn't ready to be found out yet, so she and Bona go to ask a friend of theirs to pretend to be Eve's teacher so the aunt will not ask too many questions. While they are out, Garrett, Bona's brother, arrives with a friend, Victor Ward, who has come to town to close an important business deal for his father. While waiting for the girls, Victor tears his trousers and Garrett goes out to have them mended, not realizing that it is a holiday. The snoopy landlady, Bessie Rhodes, almost discovers Victor, but he gets rid of her by wearing a kimona and head scarf and pretending to one of the girls with a bad cold. Then Aunt Angela and Gifford come in . . . see Victor and think they are in the wrong apartment. They tell the landlady . . . she thinks Victor is a burglar. Victor has already frightened the comedy maid, Hazel Miles, into a faint. Garrett comes back, is forced by Victor to change clothes with him. Victor goes out to make his appointment, leaving Garrett in the same fix Victor was in! Then . . . well there just isn't space here to describe all the hilarious things that happen in this hundred per cent, laugh getting play.

Even Stevie Cobb, the superstitious colored elevator boy gets mixed up in the tangle, which gets worse and worse until it seems that nothing can straighten it out. But all ends happily in a most amusing way.

"Bolts and Nuts"

When Benjamin Bolt died he left his sister, Rebecca, his old house. She immediately turned it into a mental sanitarium for the treatment of patients, based on the theories of Dr. Joy's most famous "Joy Book." All this is done against the wishes of her niece, Benita, and the rest of the household, Lutie, the maid, with her constant flirtacious wink, Martha Grubb, the cook, with her meloncholic personality and Henry Goober, the colored porter. Through a freak accident, Dr. Joy and Rebecca collide and he offers to stay and cure her first patients.

Rebecca discovers that Benjamin has $15,000 concealed in the house and his will states that if another person finds it, he will receive $5,000 and only $10,000 will go to Rebecca. As a result, all the patients start searching for the money.

Twink becomes hero and locates the money. Rebecca gives her consent for Benita to get married in exchange for the rest of the money.

FOOTBALL

Harrington's fighting Panthers racked up 3 wins and 4 losses in 1950 for a fair season. Coach "Win" Lomax's crew played in the Lincoln county 8-man league where they finished fourth.

The Panthers showed lots of fight at times and at times looked spiritless. Lack of reserve strength and minor injuries plagued the Panthers throughout the year.

Leland Henrichs and Carroll McCormick were chosen by their teammates as co-captains for the 1950 edition of the Panthers. Both were defensive stalwarts, Leland playing end, and Carroll line backer.

Panthers receiving football letters were seniors—Leland Henrichs, Wade Vick, Dixon White, Sadao Kinoshita, Don Schuh, Carroll McCormick, and Roger Scott; Juniors—Tom Talkington, Nils Knapp, and Bob Jannot.

The Panthers averaged 155 lbs.

Creston

The Panthers played the Comets twice and both times the Panthers defeated the Creston team easily. The first game was the season's opener and although both teams were a bit ragged, the Panthers led by burly Bob Jannot won 37 to 13.

The second game was a complete rout as the Panther's Tom Talkington racked up 6 touchdowns to lead the Panthers to a 69 to 14 victory.

Sprague

Though the Panthers lost this game it was by far the best game of the year for the Panthers. Out weighed, but not out fought, the Panthers led 12 to 6 at half-time.

Sprague's superior man power paid off as they collected 3 touchdowns, one a "fluke", in the 3rd quarter to win 25 to 12.

Reardan

On a rain-soaked field the Panthers went down to defeat 36 to 6 at the hands of the Reardan Indians. Poor blocking and a poor defense through the middle spelled defeat for the Panthers.

Almira

Almira's championship Trojans handed the Panthers two losses during the season. In the first encounter the Trojans passed their way to a 31-6 victory. Bob Jannot's interception and 60-yard runback for a TD accounted for Harrington's lone score.

In the season's finale the Trojans downed a stubborn Panther team 37-13. The Panthers trailed 18-13 in the middle of the 3rd period when a series of bad luck and penalties turned the tide for the Trojans.

Otis Orchards

Harrington's only non-conference game was with Otis Orchards and the Panthers scored a 24-6 victory. The game was even-Steven throughout, with the Panther's brilliant and alert defense playing a big part in the Panther victory.

BASKETBALL

The Harrington Panthers, coached by "Win" Lomax, had a fairly successful season in basketball this year. The Panthers won 19 games and lost 6; were Bi-County champions and took 3rd place at the North East district. The Panthers went to state for the fourth consecutive time but were eliminated in two games.

Five lettermen from last year's eighth place State's team were on hand as the season started.

Harrington placed third at the South side jamboree. The Panthers reserves played the entire jamboree. Starting its regular season H. H. S. eked by Davenport northside powerhouse, 40-37. In another warm up game the Panthers defeated the Lakeland Cowboys 47-37.

The Panthers swept through their 8 conference games. Lind fell before the Panthers in the season's opener, 48-32. The next week Harrington disposed of Sprague by a 45-31 count. An inspired Ritzville Bronco team just about pulled the "upset of the year" before losing a hard-fought game. The score was 45-41.

Lewis & Clark handed the Panthers their first loss of the season in a high scoring affair, 75-51. The Tigers from LC swept the two game series by defeating the Panthers 57-47. Lewis & Clark was considered the number one team in the state at the time. In two more non-conference affairs H. H. S. defeated Lakeland 66 to 55 and Moses Lake 40 to 32.

BASKETBALL [Continued]

Going back into conference play the Panthers trounced Odessa 50 to 37, downed Lind 43 to 27. The Panthers raced to a 52-38 victory over St. John in a Kings-X game. Second place Sprague had a chance to tie the league leadership but lost a 37-27 decision to Harrington. "Win" Lomax's crew easily disposed of Ritzville 67 to 31, beat Moses Lake 52 to 35 and got by St. John 50-41 in a return game.

The thirteenth proved to be unlucky for the Panthers as they were handed a 47 to 45 loss at the hands of the Davenport Gorillas.

Harrington made it's eighth straight in conference play by loafing through and nearly upset by Odessa, 44-39.

Almira and Harrington met at Wilbur for the Bi-County championship. The Panthers won 55 to 35 as the Trojans couldn't keep the torrid pace set by the Panthers.

Cheney's tall Blackhawks upset the Panthers in the opening round 43 to 34 at the Northeast district. The fighting Panthers bounced back to massacre Springdale 69 to 23, run over their Bi-County rivals, Davenport, 54 to 32, and take third place plus a berth to state by beating Mead 56 to 30. Metaline Falls defeated Cheney to win the N. E. district crown.

At the state "B" tournament held in Tacoma the Panthers ran into tough luck and poor officials. They lost the opener to Kalama, defending champions, 49 to 37. Harrington kept up until the last two minutes of the game. Yelm's seven man team, that included 5 players and 2 officials, squeezed by the Panthers 51 to 49. The Chelan Goats defeated Kalama 39-37 for the state title. Port Townsend took third in the four day meet. Six players were awarded letters at the end of the season. They were Wade Vick, Carroll McCormick, Sadao Kinoshita, Don Schuh, Roger Scott, and Jack Heimbigner. Teammates chose Don Schuh and Sadao Kinoshita as honorary co-captains.

Jack Heimbigner, junior center, was picked on the second team state for the second year. He was picked as a forward on the N. E. District all star first team for the second time. Jack was the leading scorer with 451 points.

Carroll McCormick was a second team choice on the N. E. District all star team. Carroll was a forward last year but was moved out front this year

Rounding out the first six were Don Schuh, floor general and second top scorer, Wade Vick, Roger Scott, the most improved player, and Sadao Kinoshita.

Others on the first ten were juniors, Tom Talkington, Bob Birge, and Bob Jannot. Jannot was injured late in the season and Birge took his spot on the team. Sophomores Larry Bailey and Gregory Knapp give the Panther rooters something to look for in a couple of years.

BASEBALL

Tough luck plagued the Panthers the latter part of the season. With a few breaks the Panthers could have been south side champions. Don Schuh, curve ball artist, had a low earned run average but, not being able to hit "in the clutch" cost the Panthers two games both by one run margins.

The Panthers opened up with a 9-4 win over Ritzville, beat the northside champions, Almira, 7-3 in a non-conference affair. The Panthers took to the road and were beaten by Lind 3-2 after blowing a 2 run lead. The next week they lost to Odessa 4-3 in an extra inning.

A game with Sprague was cancelled but was not made up because it did not affect the league standing.

Letter winners were: Don Schuh, Leland Henrichs, Roger Scott, Carroll McCormick, Jack Heimbigner, Bob Jannot, Wade Vick, Jim Larsh and Gregory Knapp.

Don Schuh was the leading hitter batting 600.

TENNIS

The Panther's net team had a fair season but not as bright as it could have been. The girls doubles, Myrna Covert and Karlene Knapp, won the south side meet held at Odessa May 3. Sadao Kinoshita and Larry Bailey, boys doubles, went to the finals before bowing out. Ray Whiteside advanced to the second round before being eliminated. Those earning letters were: 4 year award, Karlene Knapp, 3 year award, Myrna Covert, Sadao Kinoshita 2 year award, Larry Bailey, Frances Zundel, one year award, Janet An MacDonald, Bob Birge, Ray Whiteside.

The girls doubles team, Myrna Covert and Karlene Knapp won the Bi-County championship and are entered in the N. E. District "A" meet in Spokane.

Harrington's net team won one match and lost three during the entire season. Some promising freshman girls will make next years net team a strong one.

BASKETBALL

The grade school basketball team was coached by Mr. Grant Luden with Donald Schultz and John Maurer as co-captains. A merry-go-round was held at Harrington, February 17, with Sprague, Odessa, Davenport, Reardan, Creston, and Harrington participating. Odessa placed first, Davenport second, and Harrington third. Trophies, donated by Harrington business men, were awarded to the first and second place teams. An all-star first and second team was chosen and awarded individual gold and silver basketballs. Morgan Jannot of Harrington placed on the second team.

FIRST GRADE

The total enrollment for the first grade this year has been twenty-seven children, nine girls and eighteen boys.

In January Gretchen Capin and her brother Fritz Capin enrolled coming from a Spokane school. The first of February Gretchen Whipple withdrew from our group and moved to Reardan with her parents.

During the year a Christmas party was enjoyed with Santa Claus arriving just in time to help pass out the gifts and treats. A Hallowe'en party was also a happy event.

SECOND GRADE

Last Sept. 5 there were 29 children who entered the second grade, 18 smiling little girls and 11 lively little boys. Paulette Filbeck, Karen Charlton, and David Chamberlain transferred from other schools. Dale Hopkins transferred to Davenport.

High-lights of the year have been our Hallowe'en party, Christmas festivities, Valentine Box Opening and birthday parties.

Many mothers have been welcome visitors in our room this year.

THIRD GRADE

At the beginning of the first semester there were twenty-two in the third grade, fourteen boys and eight girls. Bette Capin joined the class at the beginning of the second semester.

At Christmas time the play "The Silver Cobwebs" was given by the class and in March a general program was given.

The class enjoyed occasional ciphering and spelling matches with the fourth grade.

FOURTH GRADE

We made a vocabulary list of new words chosen from our reading and class discussion. First we learned their meanings and how to use them in conversation and then we added them to our list.

In our social studies we stressed transportation and its affects on everyday life. We put many pictures on the bulletin board showing all kinds of travel. We made posters which show the history of land, sea, and air travel. At the end of the year we each got a poster to keep.

At Christmas time we dramatized the story of Dicken's, "The Christmas Carol", and presented it for the third grade. Each month we memorize a new poem and often give them as choral readings.

At the March of Dimes benefit game the boys played an exhibition game between halves and the girls led yells to urge them on.

FIFTH GRADE

At the beginning of this year, twelve fifth graders entered school. Eight of the group had been here since their first day of school. Pauline Arnold entered at the beginning of the second semester in the first grade; John Kaputa entered here in second grade; and Patricia Sampson joined the group in the third grade. This year Walter Mack entered our room.

We have made contributions to the Red Cross, T. B. drive, Polio fund, United Nations Fountain contribution, and filled a box for Junior Red Cross.

Eight of the group are members of the Junior Band. We gave a play "Christmas Landing" for the grade school Christmas observance.

The fifth grade boys played in the March of Dimes benefit game, and Carol Becker was one of the cheer leaders for the game.

We had a very happy year in our new building and are looking forward to three more years together in our new school and to seven more years of school in Harrington.

SIXTH GRADE

The sixth grade has a class of eighteen students, comprised of eleven boys and seven girls.

A Christmas party was held and the play "On the Way Christmas," was presented to the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth grades. The cast included Marlene Hardy, Patty Parsons, Helen Covert, Roberta Rieth, Pat Fuller, and Karla Warwick.

The members of the "B" string basketball team included Bobby McKinnon, Donald Maurer, Darrel Tanke, Paul Turner, Robert Hawkins, William Huddle, Larry Schultz, and Loryn Schutlz with Donald Maurer as captain and William Huddle as co-captain.

SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade class of 16 pupils began their school year with 6 boys and 10 girls. Marjorie Whipple transferred to Reardan at the end of the first semester.

The seventh and eighth grades purchased a trophy for the grade school merry-go round.

The class gave a Christmas dinner and a Valentine party during the school year.

EIGHTH GRADE

The eighth grade began the school year with a class of eight girls and seven boys, including one new pupil, Jo Anne Harrison. During the first semester Marilyn Rogers moved to Spokane and Everett Cole transferred here from Davenport.

Manual training and home economics were taught in the seventh and eighth grades.

The eight grade topped all classes by selling $130 worth of magazines during the school magazine sale.

A Christmas party was held December 22nd, a Valentine party February 9th, and a graduation party at the end of the year.
